COUNTING THE BALLOTS

The Returns from the Connecticut Municipal Elections.

Minister Levi P. Morton Returns to America—The Drummer's Party—The March of a Thousand—General Political Notes.

MERIDEN, Conn., Oct. 8.—The election was very quiet but earnestly conducted. The vote on the constitutional amendment was yes, 1,796 no, 249.

The Republican ticket was elected by 275 majority.

BRIIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 8.—In Stratford the town voted to keep their town ticket with the exception of an Amherst and the Committee on Washington bridge.

In Trumbull the Democratic town ticket is elected. The constitutional amendment is carried by 100 majority.

In Monroe the Republican town ticket is elected. Constitutional amendment—yes, 107, no, 15.

In Eston the entire Republican ticket is elected by a vote of 2,011. Majority for constitutional amendment—yes, 60, 499.

AT NEW HAVEN.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 8.—One hundred and fourteen men were given 13,000 majority for the proposed amendment. This does not include the vote of Hartford amendment adopted by at least 10,000 majority. The town election shows slight Republican gains.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 8.—The real contest was between the two candidates, Fowler, Democrat, and C. L. Lewis, and the nomination of Cleveland was forced upon the Democratic Convention over the heads of the leaders of the beloved and honored party simply because his name was not on the ballot. The competition before was distractingly for reform. There was no such thing as a Solid South in legislation. The efforts to right the fires of the conflicts have ended and would not meet with success.

Arthur, who had arrived a few moments before, looked at it from the window of his private parlor.

WITNESSES OF THE CAMPAIGN.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—The Journal says: "At the offices of the Union Pacific Railroad Company the attention of a director was called to a telegram to the effect that the officers of the company have some damaged ledgers of Boston which he had sold him before."

"There is not a particle of truth in the story," was his emphatic response. Then called a man who is familiar with all the correspondence of the company and asked him.

He replied: "No ledgers have been received by the company from Mr. Blaine, since there ever has been any written by him in our possession."

A DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Oct. 8.—There was a large Democratic demonstration here, the chief speaker of which was a young girl named Rose Andrigo, daughter of a well-to-do coal operator, took place there in her parlour. The girl is described as being 16 years of age, comes from Franklin county, and was a recent arrival.

Two weeks ago Ludwig Aramapakis paid a visit to Mount Carmel.

He brought with him letters of introduction to Mr. Andrigo, who when they were presented invited him to spend some time at his residence. Count Ludwig is at once fell desperately in love with his host's daughter, and apparently was about to wed her.

It is reported that Miss Rose was engaged to her lover.

AMONG THE VICTIMS.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—A special despatch from Mount Carmel says that a desperate contest between the lovers of a young girl named Rose Andrigo, daughter of a well-to-do coal operator, took place there in her parlour. AMONG THE VICTIMS.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—The Federation of Trades Labor Unions consisting of representatives of various labor organizations in the State, staged a meeting yesterday in Schlesinger's Hall. Fifty delegates to represent nearly a million wage workers.

An effort will be made to induce the Federation to declare in favor of a revision of the Constitution.

RECONSTITUTION MADE.

HARTFORD, Oct. 8.—Wm. W. Eaton was reconstituted by the Democrats for the First Congressional District.

A MYSTERIOUS TRAGEDY.

A MAN KILLED INSTANTLY BY UNKNOWN HANDS.

DETROIT, Oct. 8.—The Abe Glorian, principal of the Michigan Normal School, was assassinated in his home in Denver. Michael Kinney and Charles Peteros, two young men, were running to a fire, and were at Twenty-second and Holiday streets when they shot fired from a mysterious source struck Kinney in the back killing him. Abe Glorian, who was a member of the Michigan Normal School, was elected to the Legislature by a majority of 748 majority. The town voted for license by a majority of 491.

LEVY P. MORTON'S RETURN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Mr. Levy P. Morton, United States Minister to France, has arrived here on the Normandy. To a reporter Mr. Morton said that he had barely come here for a short visit to accompany his mother-in-law, and to attend to some pressing personal business. He had left his family in Paris, and intended to return to France on the Normandy in November.

"It is rumored that you intend to resign your position as Minister?"

"It is a mistake. I have no such intention."

"It has also been reported that in the Cabinet, made vacant by the death of Judge Folger, has been tendered to you?"

"All that I know about that," said Mr. Morton, "is what I have seen in the newspaper press."

"Will you take an active part in the present campaign?"

"I shall take an active interest as all good citizens, and, when the time comes, if that doesn't interfere, I shall take any part."

Once Mr. Morton's friends, however, said that the prime object of Mr. Morton's return just at this time was to take an active part in Blaine's canvass, and that it was more than probable in the event of that gentleman's election, that Mr. Morton would be tendered the position of Secretary of the Treasury.

THE DRUMMER'S PARTY.

LAWRENCE, Ky., Oct. 8.—The Committee appointed by the Drummer's National Convention waited upon the Hon. Jos. Mulligan Saturday evening and notified him officially of his nomination for President of the United States.

He is to appear in the Courier-Journal tomorrow.

The principal points of interest in it are that the uprising of the drummer fraternity means a new era, when business men shall represent professional politicians and the lower classes, thus ruling the business interests of the country.

It favors prohibition because no drummer or business man can drink intoxicating liquors and be successful.

It opposes negroes because it is a permanent system of slavery, is unconstitutional and interferes with honest workmen.

It favors retrenchment, reform, the abolition of war taxes and the application of the surplus in the Treasury at once to the liquidation of the public debt and to public improvement.

THE MARCH OF A THOUSAND.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The march of a thousand, organized on the 10th of October, was to be held on the 10th of November.

The procession turned out of the city and marched past the house of General Grant, who came out on the street bade them a cordial farewell.

Mr. George C. Fife and Mrs. Fife were seriously injured.

Mr. Lockett, a Georgia man, F. M. Faulkner, a white convict, plunged into the river to escape, and was shot and killed by a negro convict named Dock Jackson.

The Custom House, examine of foreign and native vessels, was closed for the day.

Mr. James C. McLean, a well-known lawyer, was greatly annoyed by the conduct of the police.

Mr. Edward S. Draper, Chairman of the Republican National headquarters.

The procession moved on and passed

the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and President

Arthur, who had arrived a few moments before, looked at it from the window of his private parlor.

AMONG THE VICTIMS.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Oct.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.
WEDNESDAY EVE., OCTOBER 8, 1884

Mr. Powers and the Tariff.

"They are charging me with being a 'free trader.' That is false and Mr. Wadsworth and his friends know it. "I stand by the Democratic platform which gives no uncertain sound as to tariff."

FRANK POWERS.

That is what Mr. Powers writes with his own hand, and that is where the BULLETIN placed him, and by his authority. He does not mean that he shall be misunderstood, and that to end has made his meaning so plain that any man can comprehend it. Any man who puts him in a position respecting the tariff not in accord with the National Democratic platform misrepresents him.

From Mr. Wadsworth's Organ.

THIRTY-THREE horse thieves have been hanged within a short time by the vigilants of New York.

Horace Greely were alive he'd say, "thirty-three Democrats gone to their final account."—("New Republican."

The election in Ohio will take place next Tuesday. The fight will be a hotly contested one with the chances about even. The Democrats are very hopeful of carrying the State, but even should they be defeated by less than 10,000 majority, it will still be a great victory for them, and will carry encouragement to the friends of good government all over the Union. In the meantime we hope the best.

The man who once proposed to abandon a part of the constitution as "bran and husks," is not a safe man to follow. If he was willing to depart from the constitution once he will be willing to do it again. If the Presidential election should by any chance be thrown on the House of Representatives, and Mr. Wadsworth was a member of that body, would any "bran and husks" of the constitution, be permitted to stand in the way of the success of his party?

The apathy of the Republicans in the Congressional race is only assumed. Don't take any stock in it, for they are working secretly like beavers everywhere in the district. Don't be misled by appearances. You are contending with a treacherous foe, and the present policy is to throw the Democracy off their guard and thus weaken the opposition. Every Democrat ought to be at work and continue it until the last minute. And the Democracy also ought to understand that every vote will be needed.

History-Repeating Itself.

The Blaine circus has become the laughing stock of the whole country. The idea of exhibiting the tattooed candidate like a ribboned stallion at a county fair is ludicrous indeed.

As for the speeches made by Mr. Blaine, they are simply a few sentences of blarney, varying but little in style or sentiment, and intended to be suited to the locality at which he is being exhibited.

In 1852 General Scott as the candidate of the Whig party was exhibited the same way by his managers. He also indulged in sacharine speeches which Mr. Blaine seems to be faithfully imitating. He spoke of the "sweet Irish brogue and the rich German accent." When the votes were counted the Scott circus went into liquidation.

Horace Greely in 1872 undertook a similar experiment and failed. History repeats itself, and the Blaine circus is bound to wind up its trip at the head of Salt River.

In 1868, the editor of the Eagle denounced Mr. Wadsworth for deserting the Union Democratic party and flitting over to the Radicals. He said: "He asks us what we are going to do about it and then politely invites us to join in the revolution and participate in the 'crime.'" He has reconsidered all this and is now one of the managers of Mr. Wadsworth's canvas for Congress.

In 1863 Judge Thomas, the other manager, if what the Eagle said in 1870 is true, while professing to be a friend of Mr. Wadsworth's, deliberately set to work to betray him to secure the Congressional nomination for himself. Here is what the editor of the Eagle wrote of his fellow manager, October 19, 1870: "In 1863, Mr. Thomas wrote to Hon. W. H. Wadsworth a number of letters urging him to become a candidate for re-election to Congress, and endorsing his 'votes as the Representative from this district; but at that very time he was engaged in sowing the seeds of disaffection against Mr. Wadsworth, implying his Unionism and was a party to an intrigue to supplant him. The movement he had secretly inaugurated with the hope that the choice of the opposition to Mr. Wadsworth would 'fall upon him'."

Surely politics make strange bed-fellows.

The editor of the Eagle, who is now identified with being one of the managers of Mr. Wadsworth's canvas for Congress, furnishes these instances of his political inconsistency. The following is taken from the Eagle of September 2, 1868: "In the fall of 1862 Vallandigham was a candidate for Congress in Ohio against General Schenck. Mr. Wadsworth earnestly desired his election and was only prevented from canning his district by the Confederate invasion of Kentucky." However, he wrote the following letter:

"Yesterday, we had a skirmish with four hundred guerrillas. Such is our condition that the Provost of God, an impenetrable minister of the gospel, and the infallibility of an apostolic Congress have brought us to this. I am compelled to say that most of my neighbors in arms to make head against these raiders and I have command of them. May God in his mercy spare us the final judgment. We are not yet beaten. May God not let every one of them be defeated. I don't only hope for it, but I pray it. A great cause must be carried against rebellion and abolition, and the Union must be saved, or, I will endeavor. Success to you."

—W. H. WADSWORTH.

The other instance is referred to in a speech made by the editor of the Eagle, in this city, September 10, 1868. He said: "Mr. Wadsworth's fourth reason why we should vote the Radical ticket is his assertion that the plan of reconstruction has been accomplished and cannot be undone. He asks us what we intend to do about it, and then politely invites us to join in the revolution and participate in the crime. As well might the assassin who had murdered your sleeping wife and babes with their precious blood still dripping from his dagger, and the smell fresh upon his garments, say to these who had caught him in the act; why make all this fuss? Those you love are already dead. You cannot bring them back to life again. You would answer, yes, but I can try to make the villainous assassin and execute him."

We arraign the Radical party as the assassin of the people's liberty, and the fact that the murder has been perpetuated will not be accepted as a palliation of its crimes. We refuse to trust the men who have done these things lest they should proceed still further in despotism and infamy."

Here you have an illustration of Mr. Wadsworth's great double act, from his political manager himself. It was on the strength of this record that he forced upon the Republican party as their candidate at the expense of Culbertson. It was claimed that his grand entry into political life would bug Democratic voters and the finale would attract Republican support. But both will fail. As the Eagle said the other day, "he has never claimed to be a Democrat," and as Col. Worthington declared, "his record as a Republican is not such as to command him to the Republicans of the Ninth district.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY EVE., OCTOBER 8, 1884

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

I'm wishing now, with all my heart,
I hadn't went and gone,
And then my heart's in the yoke
And put the harness on.
Because, you see, I'm much afraid,
I cannot make a run,
Like that I made when they backed me
In eighteen sixty-one.

The Kentucky Masonic Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Bowling Green, has assigned.

"Rough on Itch," cures humors, eruptions, ringworm, tetter, salt rheum, frosty feet, chilblains.

According to the Signal Service calculations a cool wave is due in the Ohio valley this afternoon.

A hand-made cigar case, very handsome, will be raffled at the European Hotel to-night at 10 cents a chance.

The Cleveland, Hendricks and Powers club will meet at the court house next Friday evening. Don't fail to be there.

Mr. JAMES C. WILSON yesterday sold two lots in Woodville to Mrs. A. J. Williams. The sale was made through the agency of M. F. Marsh.

Mr. ROBERT F. MEANS has just put up in front of his lot in East Maysville a wire and iron fence, which is one of the handsomest in the city.

The funeral of Miss Charlotte Taylor will take place from the church of the Methodist, this afternoon, at three o'clock. Services by Rev. B. Hudgings, the pastor.

The farm of Miss Eliza Walker, deceased, near Washington, was sold on Monday, at private sale, to Mr. James Tucker, Jr., for $130 an acre. The place contains seventy-three acres.

Don't forget the Democratic meeting at Alderden this evening. The Cleveland, Hendricks and Powers club and all other Democrats are invited. Let the Maysville delegation be a large one.

A dance given last night by Misses Lily and Louise Schatzmann, at their former residence, in the West End, was a very pleasant affair, and was attended by a large number of their acquaintances.

Ten colored Odd Fellows will parade at Cincinnati on Thursday, and lodges from the following places will attend: Mt. Sterling, Winchester, Lexington, Maysville, Mayslick, Washington, Paris and other cities.

Business Change.

The firm name of L. Foster & Co., proprietors of the Magnolia Flour Mills, in this city, has been changed to Foster & Sulser, Mr. George W. Sulser having bought a one-half interest in the business.

The Missouri Steam Washer, said to be the best in use, can be seen at G. W. Geissel's store or at room No. 11, at the Hill House. It is something that every housekeeper ought to have. Mrs. Arch. L. Scudder is the agent in this city. See advertisement elsewhere.

MESSRS. A. B. GREENWOOD and C. M. Browning, have rented one of the stores in the Zweigart building and will open about the first of next month a stock of wall paper, window shades, paints, oils, varnishes, brushes and painter's supplies generally. Mr. Greenwood is a practical painter of long experience, and Mr. Browning is also well acquainted with the business. They invite their friends to call and see them.

The following interesting advice to men who attend Democratic conventions, was written by the editor of the Maysville Eagle. We find it in the issue of August 26th, 1883, about the time when Mr. Wadsworth was preparing to flop over to Granitism, and all that term implies:

"A man who submits his name to a convention must abide by its decision. It is known that conventions are often manipulated so that their action does not fairly represent the will of the people, but when a man goes into one he does so with his eyes open to the fact and agrees to take the chances. In the present instance the nominee must be supported by all. There will be no such nonsense as an independent candidate. Those who go before a convention and those who stay out of it, must alike submit to its action. The man who goes before it and bolts, will be dismasted. The man who does not go before it and runs independently, will act without patriotism or sense."

There is a sound opinion from one of Mr. Wadsworth's own managers. We commend it to the attention of his Democratic "personal friends" who are asked to bolt the Democratic nomination and vote to save the Sagamore Leaf from sinking.

Barnum Street Parade.

No show has ever attempted to equal the glories and brilliant innovations of the famous Barnum and London Shows' matchless procession, one of which will occur here Saturday, October 13th. Like the performance itself, which marks the most conspicuous era in arctic amusements, it is without a rival. The Chicago Daily Mail of September 1st, says of the pageant:

The Barnum-London Show excited high admiration by its street parade in Chicago to-day. It was the opening of a week's season, or the lake front. The parade was unique and curious in beauty and extravagance, and attracted great crowds of people in the streets through which the march was made. The golden chariots, gilded cages, wherein living beasts were exposed, and elaborate band wagons were all as attractive as they could possibly be. The ethnological congress and strange people were placed in conspicuous sight of all, and their nativity was plainly discerned. The herd of elephants, the harnessed dromedaries, the alegorical accessories, the jubilee singers, the bell chimes, the mammoth orchestra, the band, the magnificent steed of Percherons, the racing chariots, the cavalcade of lady riders, the mounted men, and, in fact, everything was given as advertised, and was quite successful. Barnum's season here promises to be very profitable. He has always been well patronized in this city, and he boasts that his entertainment is now better than ever before. Among the prominent features of the show, aside from the colossal Jumbo, the baby elephant and mother, and other rare animals, may be named the sacred elephant, purchased from King Thibaw, of Burma, for $200,000, and the Burmese, Nubians, Afghans, Hindoos, Toda people, Nauchi dancing girls, images and bronzes.

MEXICAN RIOT TERRORS

El Coyote, the Bandit, Still Holds High Carnival.

His Forces Greatly Augmented Recently by the Addition of Straggling Bands—The Various Causes of the Trouble Explained.

NEUVA LAREDO, Mex., Oct. 8.—A well posted person who has just arrived from the interior, attributes the real cause of the recent bloody riot in the town of Salinas to the high state of political excitement which has been created by the Alcalde and Narvaez parties, both of which have candidates in the field for the Governorship of the State of Nueva Laredo.

Alcalde Santos and his father were prominent leaders of General Trevino's party. It is thought El Coyote, the bandit, was incited to lead the attack by the adherents of the General Narvaez faction. The Alcalde was killed in the presence of his wife and aged mother, late last Saturday night, a redoubtive fortification in the building which they captured and were successfully resisting. The Government troops sent against them, A serious outcome is apprehended.

The Chief of Police has issued orders to shoot on sight all bandits, and special efforts will be made so slay the desperate leader of the gang, without whom it is thought, the ruffians could be easily vanquished and the band broken up. The terror still reigns in the place. The towns in dignities to whom they have been subjected by the gang whatever is worse than death itself, and it is not surprising to see that all who can do so are seeking safety in flight.

Intelligence received late says that El Coyote, with nearly 200 men, is bivouacked at Villalobos, some thirty-five miles below Barancas and only twelve miles from Bustamante, the scene of his former attack about a year ago. This indicates that El Coyote has for some time directed his operations, doubtless meditating an attack upon Bustamante before sweeping north with his main body. Since leaving Salinas, El Coyote's forces have been greatly augmented by adding bandits, who have just sold themselves to the bloody Wolf. Some reports place the outlaw's forces as high as 300. It is questionable whether the Government forces in this section are strong enough to give battle to them.

There is no longer any doubt that the recent sanguinary attack on the municipal authorities of Salinas was aided and abetted by many respectable citizens. Alcalde Santos and his chief were among the most notorious and tyrannical. The summary vengeance visited upon Judge Santos and the Chief of Police has aroused a similar spirit of resentment in many other towns against their municipal authorities.

It is a remarkable fact that these Alcaldes, who are held in high Federal authority, are veritable despots, almost amenable to the law. Similar uprisings are therefore anticipated at other points.

ANIMAL DISEASES.

Efforts Made to Stop the Importation of Infected Cattle.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 8.—The efforts of the Federal health authorities to restrain the importation of meat cattle into the United States is now confined to four ports on the Atlantic seaboard—Baltimore, Boston, New York and Baltimore, Md. Orleans had done considerable business in the importation of fancy breeds from England. The quarantine has been strictly maintained at the expense of the importers under the care of the Bureau of Animal Industry, and no contagious disease of any kind has been introduced into the country by importation of cattle through this port. The Collector, General Badger, has made a protest to the authorities at Washington, claiming that the members of the government in depriving a coast line of over 3,000 miles of the right to import cattle will, with the increased expense of importing and quarantining in Eastern ports, operate as a prohibitory of the importation of cattle into the grain lands of the South and Southwest. Even now he is in receipt of a communication from an importer of Mobile, Alabama, in which he stated that he desires to import from 100 to 150 head of Jersey cattle through this port at an early date.

CATTLE MISSING.

Thousands of Cattle Supposed to be Captured by the Pagan Indians.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 8.—A gentleman at present in this city, who is largely interested in cattle raising in the Northwest, received word this morning of the capture of 3,700 which were being driven from Manitoba into Canada, near Fort McLeod, although long overdue had not arrived yet.

The attention of the Dominion Government was called to the situation in the interior in which the Spanish Indians of Montana were extorting ten cents per head on cattle drivers across their reserve, hoping that the master would be laid before the authorities at Washington. The gentlemen alluded to stated that the Indians had not been satisfied with ten cents per head, but have appropriated what cattle they saw it to take. Possibly, he says, the cowboys have driven the cattle around by a circuitous route in order to avoid the Indians, who, provided for food are becoming more hostile. He states that the general opinion prevails among ranchmen in the Northwest that there is some movement of Indians, and Indian agents by which the latter receive a portion of the tribute money paid for closing their eyes to the transactions alluded to.

Secretary Teller Going Home.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Secretary Teller has left Washington for New York, where he will visit the President for a day or two. He will then go to Colorado and expects to return to Washington in November. The annual reports of the Bureau Officers of the Interior Department will soon be ready, but the Secretary has decided not to give them to the public until after his return from his Western trip.

Veteran Artilleryman.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 8.—The ancient and honorable artillery company observed its annual field day by a trip to New Bedford. A patriotic city under escort of Companies A, First Infantry, a banquet at the City Hall and a late return home.

Indian Moves.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has made arrangements for the removal of the Tonkawa Indians from Texas to the Iowa reservation.

Cuticura A POSITIVE CURE

FOR EVERY FORM OF SKIN AND BLOOD DISEASE, FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

I have had the Poxrash for nine months. About five months ago I applied to a doctor near Boston, who helped me but unfortunately did not cure me. I used Cuticura and his medicine for nearly three months, but the disease did not leave. I saw Mr. Carpenter's advertisement in the paper and bought Cuticura, which perfectly cured me. I tried the usual ointments, soap, etc., but nothing worked, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap in proportion, and call myself completely cured.
